North Carolina Society of Healthcare Attorneys
Mini-Seminar - July 23, 2008
Nexsen Pruet LLC, Greensboro, NC

“DOCUMENT PRODUCTION IN TODAY’S LEGAL ENVIRONMENT FOR THE HEALTH CARE PROVIDER”

Taking into account the potential influence of the HIPAA regulations, the Patriot Act and State Laws, this presentation will provide an overview of what the law allows when responding to requests such as the following:

- Requests for documents from patients, representatives and attorneys
- Subpoenas issued by attorneys v. the courts
- Search Warrants

The NC Society of Health Care Attorneys is pleased to introduce Ms. Harriett Smalls as the presenter for this seminar.

Harriett Smalls earned her A.D.N. degree from Augusta College and her B.S.N. from UNC-G. She went on to earn a J.D. from the UNC-Chapel Hill School of Law and currently practices with Smith Moore Law in Greensboro.

She has 16 years of experience as a registered nurse, during which she worked as a Certified Neonatal Nurse Practitioner. She continues to work on a PRN basis as a neonatal nurse practitioner at Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem.

Ms. Small's health law practice includes patient confidentiality, disclosure of medical records, certificate of need, medical malpractice, regulatory and administrative issues, licensure and certification and fraud and abuse cases. She makes presentations on HIPAA, confidentiality of medical records and consent of minors.
